

ORANGE SCHOOL QUIET TIME

TUESDAY:

READ: Romans 7:14-25

The struggle with sin is real! We desire to follow God's instructions, but the power of sin can lead to failure. Through Jesus, there is hope over this ongoing inner conflict. Answer the questions below:

- Q: How do you handle the conflict of sin in your own life?
- Q: What are some areas in your life where you feel sin trying to hold you captive?
- Q: What is something God has asked you to do that you haven't done yet?
- Q: Whom will you serve today - your sinful nature or God?

WEDNESDAY

READ: James 4:7-10

Submission to God is required in order to resist the devil. Repenting from sin in humility will give way for God's grace to work in our hearts. Let Him cleanse you today. Answer the questions below:

- Q: What does it mean to "submit to God" on a daily, practical basis?
- Q: What does it look like to actively resist the devil on a daily basis?
- Q: In what ways is grieving over sin important for spiritual growth?
- Q: What does this passage reveal God longs to do in our lives?

THURSDAY

READ: Psalm 15

If we're honest, sometimes commands in the Bible feel impossible to achieve. Today's text brings many assignments we might feel incapable of completing. Let's examine what God desires from us and how we'll need His help in living faithful lives. Answer the questions below:

- Q: How does speaking truthfully (verse 2) impact your relationship with God? With others?
- Q: How can you apply the ideas of verse 3 in your daily interactions with others?
- Q: How will the qualities mentioned in this Psalm help others see God in you?
- Q: What does verse 5 indicate as our reward for righteous living?

FRIDAY

READ: James 2:14-17

Spiritual growth that happens at camp is meant to propel you into greater obedience as you return home. Write down three specific things the Lord taught you this week and how you plan to apply those truths to your life. Spend time intentionally praying over each action item.
